

The Soul Edition

Journey with Heart , Live with Purpose

"Generosity, virtue, and mindfulness—
the heart of the Buddha's path."

Dāna (Generosity)

The joy of giving and sharing, opening the heart to kindness and connection

Sīla (Virtue)

Living with integrity,
mindfulness, and respect,
creating harmony within and around us.

Bhāvanā (Mindfulness)

Nurturing clarity and wisdom through reflection and meditation.

“Generosity opens the heart (Dāna), integrity guides our actions (Sīla), and cultivation brings wisdom (Bhāvanā). Together, they form the path to a soulful life.”

CMS002 Sīla Practice 9 Temples

Chiangmai-Lampoon 3D2N

9 Temple Pilgrimage in Thailand is a deeply rooted spiritual tradition embraced by Thai Buddhists,

- It's believed that visiting 9 sacred temples brings good fortune, success, and protection, as the number 9 (nine, gao in Thai) sounds like the Thai word “ก้าว” (gao) meaning "to step forward"—symbolizing progress in life.
- 9 Temple Pilgrimage in Lamphun, once the capital of the Hariphunchai Kingdom, is known for its sacred temples, many of which date back over a thousand years and are deeply tied to Queen Chamadevi, the revered founder, was a flourishing Buddhist center and the oldest Mon kingdom in northern Thailand. It laid the cultural and religious foundation for the later rise of the Lanna Kingdom.

CMS003 “Bhāvanā”

Tha Lanna Chiangmai-Chiangrai 5D4N

“Through Bhāvanā, we nurture the mind toward clarity and peace.

A journey deepened by the rare blessing of meeting an Ariya (monk) and receiving the Dhamma directly.”
